100 YEARS OF RADIO

To celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Indianapolis Radio Club, there will be a special display of vintage radio equipment on display. Everything from spark gap to the latest SDR radios will be on display along with the history of the oldest continuously meeting radio club in the United States. Don't miss it!

HAM RADIO CONTESTS

HOMEBREW

Cooked up any good homebrew project lately? Judges will be looking for creativity, design, construction, safety and overall appearance. Please, no kit entries. All entries must include full schematics, and be amateur radio related.

QSL CARDS

All entries will be judged on overall design, use of color, and uniqueness. All cards will be on display at the hamfest prize booth for all to see. Cards will be returned at the end of the show.

LICENSE TESTING

The test is $15, payable in cash or check. All candidates need the test fee, a photo ID, and if they are already licensed, their original license as well as two copies of it. Other than that, we supply everything else.
